

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated their time and energy to ensuring that each generation of students is prepared for its future role in societal leadership; and

Whereas, Susan Y. Askew of Saint Louis has attained considerable distinction during the past ten years as an administrator with the Bayless School District; and

Whereas, on July 1, 2004, Susan Askew will draw her endeavors with the Bayless School District to a close when she retires from her position as Superintendent of Schools; and

Whereas, a former Bayless Assistant Superintendent and Junior High School Principal, Susan Askew also brought to her recent endeavors a wealth of knowledge and experience which she had garnered from earlier work as a Middle School and High School Counselor, Behavioral Disorders Teacher, and Middle School Assistant Principal for fifteen years in the Festus School District; and

Whereas, Susan Askew assisted with the Bayless School District preparations which led to its receipt of Distinction for Improvement of Performance and Full Accreditation status during the 2000 state review and its passage of a 2001 tax levy increase; and

Whereas, Susan Askew is a member of the Missouri Association of School Administrators, the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, and the Affton Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, Susan Askew is the beloved daughter of Bill and Iona Askew and loving sibling of Bill Askew, Shireen Eckelmann, and Kim Askew-Weik:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exceptional educational career enjoyed by Susan Askew and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Susan Y. Askew of Saint Louis, Missouri.
